Tour Itinerary

Fri – 17th February Arrival Day

If you arrive within USO Rome center operation hours 08.30 – 17.00 come and meet our staff at the USO center located in via Vespasiano 44 and get your itinerary, vouchers and maps. The USO staff will review your itinerary explaining you all the different meeting points

Sat – 18th February

10.00 Vatican Museums and St Peter's: pick up in front of the USO office via Vespasiano 44.

Meet our tour guide at the USO office at 09:45 and walk at the entrance of the Vatican Museums makes up one of the largest collections of art in the world while Vatican City is the smallest country in the world. 5 hours is hardly enough to let our guides take you on a trip from the past into the present. As our guides bring to life the wonders of the Vatican, the tour never feels as long as it sounds. The group also stops for lunch about half-way through the tour inside of the Vatican Museums.

19:00 Dinner at Vito's: Located in via degli Scipioni. A typical Roman trattoria, where you can try homemade pastas and delicious Italian recipes. Opens at 19.30

Sun - 19th February

08:45 Coliseum and Roman Forum Tour

During this 3-hour group walking tour you will explore the ruins of the largest ancient empire as our guide takes you inside the Coliseum and the ancient Roman Forum and brings to life the sights and sounds that filled them more than two millennia ago. In the Coliseum we will recreate the original architecture, imagining one day of games we will encounter gladiators, senators, emperors, learn about the social meaning of the games in the complex multi-ethnic society of the time. Similarly, in the valley of the Roman Forum we will put temples and buildings in their original historical context making sense of institutions, laws and rituals.

The tour doesn't include the ride back to the USO Rome center; subway will be a fast way.

14:00 Palatine Tour

The Palatine Hill offers the city's most dramatic look at the depth of Roman history, where we can catch a glimpse of the private lives of emperors, the vices and luxuries of the seat of the world's greatest power, and how that power spoiled and intoxicated the likes of Caligula and Domitian. This is a voyage through history, in which men and gods sat next to each other, a voyage through the myths of men and gods.

19.00 Dinner with Music Live Show at Le Terme del Colosseo: located in front of the Coliseum, in Via del Cardello, you can enjoy a delicious roman dinner in the company of singers, tenors and dancers.
